Controlling Chaos
[Phys. Rev. Lett. 64, 1196 (1990)]

Edward Ott, Celso Grebogi, and James A. Yorke

The second sentence in Ref. 8 should read as follows: "Three exceptions (which are quite different from our approach) are the papers of Huberman and Lumer, of Hubler (who typically requires large controlling signals), and of Fowler [B. A. Huberman and E. Lumer, IEEE Trans. Circuit Syst. 37, 547 (1990); A. Hubler, Helv. Phys. Acta 62, 343 (1989); T. B. Fowler, IEEE Trans. Autom. Control 34, 201 (1989)]."

The reference to Huberman and Lumer was inadvertently omitted.
